I will give thanks to God with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

studied by all who delight in them.

for the Lord is gracious and merciful.
To all who revere the holy name,
God will be faithful forever.

In the Lord's hands are truth and justice;
all God's precepts are trustworthy and sure.

Leader: The Lord has redeemed the people and will keep covenant forever.
Holy is the Lord our God.

People: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
God's praise endures forever.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

HYMN OF PRAISE # 652 "A Grateful Heart"

CALL TO CONFESSION

(Few moments of silent prayer)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Compassionate Christ, you send us out to cure the sick, but we blame their suffering on their choices. You ask us to restore the outcast, but we cite risks that keep them separated from society. You compel us to raise the dead, but we insist some are beyond help. In your patient and persistent mercy, forgive us Lord. Teach us to heal without condition and help without limitation. Enable us to love one another as you love us, that as recipients of unmerited grace, we may freely shower care upon all people. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: In the name of the One who restores the lost, raises the dead, and reigns on high,
I proclaim to you that your sins are forgiven.
This is the good news of the gospel:
in Jesus Christ we are healed and made whole.

People: Thanks be to God. Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE

Leader: The Lord is your strength and salvation,
in Christ is wholeness and peace.
The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH from the Confession of 1967

God has created humanity that we might respond to the love of the Creator and has endowed us with capacities to make the world serve our needs and enjoy its good fruits. Life is a gift to be received with gratitude and a task to be pursued with courage. We are free to seek life within the purpose of God: to develop and protect the resources of nature for the common welfare, to work for justice and peace in society, and in other ways to use our creative powers for the fulfillment of human life.

OFFERTORY

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

PEACE & GLOBAL WITNESS OFFERING

There is still time to give to the Peace & Global Witness Offering. God's presence empowers us to live joyfully within our communities and to bring peace to all around us. Through this Offering, we connect with each other to confront systems of injustice and promote reconciliation in places around the world — and right here at home. 25% of this Offering will stay with Covenant for our own ministries of peacemaking and reconciliation. 25% of this Offering will join with other congregations in our area to support peacemaking work in the region. 50% of this Offering supports programs and ministries working actively for peace and justice around our nation and the world. Peace begins with each of us. If we all do a little, it adds up to a lot! The Peace & Global Witness Offering enables the church to promote the peace of Christ by addressing systems of injustice in our own communities and around the world. Together we are building God's household of peace where everyone is welcome; where all can find compassion, peace and justice.

OCTOBER IS CLERGY APPRECIATION MONTH!

This month we have the opportunity to intentionally express our appreciation and gratitude to our Pastor, Maggie Rust. Most of all, we want to say "Thanks Maggie, we are blessed by the dedication and service that you are giving to our church." We'll conclude the month with a celebration of Maggie's first full year at Covenant with refreshments in the library after our worship service on October 30.

2023 STEWARDSHIP SEASON

Fall is a beautiful time of year – the colorful leaves, the crisp morning air, and a harvest season that invites us to gratitude and thanksgiving. The return of autumn also means another opportunity to deeply consider our Stewardship. With the gifts God has graciously given us, how will we build up our church and our community, giving glory back to God through our generosity?

You'll be seeing pledge cards go out in the coming weeks. It is from the pledges of Covenant's members and friends that our Stewardship Committee and Session are able to develop our budget for the coming year. Your personal financial contributions are necessary to support every aspect of our ministry as our congregation engages in worship and mission together.

From Sunday school, worship services, and retreats that feed our souls, to fellowship meals and picnics that feed our stomachs, when you give you support the church in its work. Mission projects with our partners like BABMOC, ETSU UKirk, Frontera de Cristo, and The River, maintaining our building to host almost daily recovery meetings for NA and AI Anon, supporting our staff to preach, provide music, and keep us connected – none of this would be possible without your gifts.

We are a community of faith, hope, and love. We may be small in number, but we are mighty in what we can do in ministry together. God has faithfully shown us exactly that in recent years, and we trust the Spirit will continue to guide us in the days to come. Please prayerfully consider how you will be a part of this community and give your financial support, your talents and time, in the coming year.

Completed pledge cards can be returned to the church office by mail, dropped off during the week, or emailed to office@cpcjc.org. Thank you for supporting our ministry and being part of the Covenant Community!

GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER

Name tags are hanging on the wall in the Narthex. We're asking everyone to wear their name tags while at the church to make it easier to get to know each other. If you don't find one with your name on it, please let Tina know!

AFFIRMING ALL GOD'S CHILDREN

We at Covenant Presbyterian Church of Johnson City, Tennessee, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church (USA), aka PC(USA), present its Churchwide Antiracism Policy, first adopted in 1999 and revised in 2016. It proclaims the following:

“While recognizing that racism victimizes many different racial ethnic groups, we acknowledge its unique impact on the African American community. Given the particular forms that anti-Black racism has taken in the United States of America, both historically (including slavery and Jim Crow) and today (including mass incarceration, disproportionate policing, economic inequality, and continuing acts of racially oriented violence and hate), we state clearly: GOD LOVES BLACKNESS. Too many have denied this basic truth for too long. Our choice to align ourselves with love and not hate requires both a rejection of racism and a positive proclamation that God delights in Black lives.”

GIVING TO THE CHURCH

Besides online giving or dropping off or mailing a check, it is also easy (and free) to set up automatic payments through your banking institution or online BillPay. Thank you for continuing to support the work of Covenant Presbyterian Church.

18TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

CPC STATEMENT OF OPENNESS AND WELCOME

We aspire to Christ's model of openness and love for all persons. As God has welcomed us, we also welcome everyone into the life, leadership, and community of Christ's church, regardless of abilities, age, economic status, education, ethnicity, gender identity, race, sexual orientation, social position or any identity or status that might be perceived as separating us from God or one another.

We pledge to affirm the inherent worth and dignity of each of God's children, with membership, leadership, and employment open to whomever God calls.

MISSION STATEMENT

Covenant Presbyterian Church exists to glorify and enjoy God. We live knowing that God calls us to be a place of love, support, hope and acceptance regardless of earthly labels. Jesus Christ commissions us to make disciples and passionately share our gifts with the world through prayer, teaching, and service. The Holy Spirit allows us to determine and carry out Christ's will for our lives and the life of our church and empowers us to seek out and respond to the needs of our local and global community.
